And who really wants to shop 'til they drop anyway? Make your shopping experience as effortless and exciting as possible whilst ensuring you don't miss any hidden gems, by hooking up with an expert personal shopper. You're sure to get more out of your trip and will no doubt pick up a few priceless fashion and purchasing tips along the way which is always a good thing.

Contempo is able to arrange the best in personal shopping experiences for clients travelling with them at a number of their featured destinations, including New York where you can spend the day with personal shopper to the stars Joan Kaufman. With years of experience as a costume designer on films and commercials too, she knows exactly where to go in the city for the perfect item and how to create a sophisticated look suited to your own personal sense of style. From shopping for men and women who want a whole new wardrobe, as well as finding key pieces for your home, she can find anything from jewellery to fabrics, from elegant to vintage to chic, in the department stores, boutiques and unique outlets around all the hottest shopping spots including Madison Avenue, SoHo, Greenwich Village, Elizabeth Street, the Meatpacking District and more!

Stay at Sixty Thompson, the luxurious lifestyle hotel in the heart of Manhattan's hip SoHo district and you'll find everything you'll need to unwind after your day. With Kittichai restaurant serving cutting-edge Thai cuisine, THOM BAR for designer cocktails and an exclusive rooftop terrace (the perfect place to show off that new outfit), it's an absolute must for anyone wishing to surround themselves with style.

Your Contempo Travel Designer can arrange similar experiences as part of your Contempo holiday in Miami where you can be chauffeur driven in elegance around all the best shopping areas, Dublin where you can enjoy a bespoke personal shopping experience at Brown Thomas, Ireland's most beautiful lifestyle store, as well as Barcelona, Florence, LA, Paris, Rome and Milan.
